ABOUT REBECCA DELMUNDO

Rebecca Delmundo is a transformative leader responsible for the intersection of financial education and community engagement at SAFE Credit Union. As Vice President of Community Relations and Financial Education, Rebecca brings 20+ years of experience in the financial industry and exemplifies the credit union philosophy of “people helping people.” Rebecca is the driving force for company-wide community development and impact strategy, including philanthropy, donations and sponsorships, while championing financial wellness goals through strategic research and participation.

A proud California State University, Sacramento alum, Rebecca pays it forward through community service endeavors — earning Junior Achievement’s Volunteer Coordinator of the Year in 2019. An Elk Grove resident, she lives with her husband, Edward, and their three children.
