

California Consumer Privacy Act Notice at Collection for Consumers on Business Accounts/Loans

To comply with regulatory obligations under the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA), SAFE Credit Union (SAFE) is required to notify individuals who are parties to business accounts/loans of the categories of personal information we may collect and how the personal information may be used.

Information We Collect and Use

Category	Examples	We Use It To
Personal Identifiers	Name, physical and mailing address, email address, telephone number, tax identification number, date of birth	Verify your identity and contact you regarding the application status and process; provide you information, financial products, or services; and to maintain your accounts
Protected Classifications	Gender, ethnicity, race	Comply with equal opportunity lending laws
Financial	Personal financial statements, bank account number, income	Assess your initial and/or ongoing qualifications for a financial product or service
Commercial	Records of personal property; products or services purchased, obtained, or considered; or other purchasing or consuming histories or tendencies	Assess your qualifications for a financial product or service
Biometric	Fingerprints, photographs, video, or voice recognition/recordings	Verify your identity and maintain security
Internet Activity	IP address	Maintain security
Geolocation	Physical location, movement, or process notification alerts	Maintain security and for notification purposes
Employment	Employment and business history	Assess your qualifications for a financial product or service
References	Credit reports, personal/professional references, SAFE account history	Verify your identity, assess your qualifications for a financial product or service, and evaluate your financial standing with SAFE

SAFE protects the privacy of personal information collected in accordance with applicable state and federal laws. SAFE does not sell your personal information.

For details on the information we collect and use to provide business financial products and services, view SAFE's California Consumer Privacy Act Policy at safecu.org/privacy. For questions about this notice, contact us at (800) 733-7233.